Brief description:

Thomas More yearly organizes international days for staff members (teaching and non-teaching) from partner institutions. The Media School of Thomas More (Campus Mechelen) warmly welcomes international colleagues from European institutions to teach about journalism and/or media and entertainment, and to join working groups to develop international projects, exchange curricula ideas and establish a sustainable cooperation with the Media School. Upon request, staff can travel within the framework of Erasmus STA or STT (to apply for external funding).
