

Summer 2020

Dear EJTA members

On behalf of the EJTA Board I wish you a good and virus-free summer break!

When the year 2020 started, we were looking forward to the Annual General Meeting in Vienna and the Teachers' Conference in Chelyabinsk.

We would welcome several new members, elect a new Board, continue our wonderful EUfactcheck-project, talk about our mid-term strategy, see lots of colleagues from Asian schools of journalism, stimulate student and staff exchange, and most of all: meet each other.

It went differently. Although much of the work continued, we had to skip our live meetings and exchanges. This is difficult for an organisation like EJTA, as it affects its essence. However, EJTA is a vibrant organisation that will survive every virus and will never stop making plans.

At the beginning of September the Board will meet to see if it is possible to organise an AGM as a real live event in November. If not, it will be a virtual General Meeting or something in between. We will inform you about this as soon as possible.

For now, I wish all of you a happy and healthy summer and I hope we will be able to actually meet again live later this year.

Nico
