EJTA WELCOMES KATLEEN VAN PRAAG

We are happy to welcome a new colleague who will cooperate with Krishna Coenen (info@ejta.eu) in the EJTA Office during academic year 2023-2024: Katleen Van Praag. Katleen will (or already has) contact(ed) you to update your EJTA contact coordinates and your institute's info for the EJTA Mobility Catalogue.

Please welcome Katleen in a positive way with a quick reply to her mail from contact@ejta.eu

Kindly understand that the EJTA Office is only staffed one day a week, so you might need to wait a couple of days for an answer if you contact them.

VOTING IN VIENNA

During the EJTA AGM 2023 we will propose some agenda items which need to be voted on.

Voting will be organised according to our statutes, Article VII, section 1, e:

“All resolutions of the General Meeting shall be passed by an absolute majority of the members in good standing present or represented by proxy. Blank ballots shall be considered not cast. No member shall hold more than two proxy votes.”

So if you can't be present, make sure you appoint another EJTA member to represent you during votes and be your proxy.

EJTAik 11: 1 DECEMBER 12:00 CET

The next EJTAik, number 11, will be organised together with the Ethical Journalism Network (EJN) on Ukraine Media: Defiance and Truth-telling.

The EJM launched a report, exploring the state of journalism in Ukraine and the impact of the war on an already challenging contemporary media landscape. The report – titled ‘Ukraine media: defiance and truth-telling’ – is the final in the Building Trust in Journalism series, looking at the challenges facing media in different countries across Central-Eastern Europe. You can find them all here.

We do hope also our Ukrainian EJM colleagues will join as active participants and we invite you all very warmly to participate. Invitation and link will be sent out in November 2023.

(EJM12 about the Crossborder Journalism Campus will be organised together with Arena and is planned for February 2024.)

EJM CONFERENCES: WHAT’S IN A NAME?

To make it easier for all EJM members to use Erasmus+ funding for Staff Training when you participate in EJM conferences, the Board decided it would be better to change the names of the conferences:

- EJM Teachers’ Conference changes into EJM Teachers’ Training
- EJM AGM and Conference changes into EJM AGM and Staff Training.

If you have better suggestions, we’re very happy and open to hear them.

EJM TEACHERS’ TRAINING PORTO

The dates for the Porto Teachers’ Training are: 8 to 10 May 2024.

The colleagues from the University of Porto will present the venue and theme in Vienna.

EUFACHECK

EUfactcheck is meeting on Wednesday afternoon in Vienna from 3.30pm until 5pm CET. The Production team will present a format for our EU elections factchecking programme in Spring 2024. All schools can join in this kick-off meeting to discuss details, team up and start preparations. More information with carien.touwen@hu.nl

WORLD JOURNALISM EDUCATION COUNCIL

On the WJEC meeting in Lyon on July 8th Dr Margareth Hughes, from AWS (West Scotland University), current chair of the Association For Journalism Education (AJE UK) was elected as new chairperson for the Council, succeeding Verica Rugar.

The 6th live World Conference will take place in Perth, Australia in July 2025. More info follows.

COPE

From 1 September 2023 onwards EJTA is no longer an active consortium partner of COPE but continues to fully support the project as a disseminator and silent partner. During the upcoming EJTA events, you'll hear more about the state of affairs and results of this important European project.
