WORLD JOURNALISM EDUCATION CONGRESS

PERTH, AUSTRALIA, 1-3 JULY 2025

Training resilient and effective Journalism graduates is vital as they face an uncertain future where democracy, human rights and the truth are under daily attack.

To address this challenge, the 2025 WJEC conference, entitled Journalism in Uncertain Times, and hosted by Edith Cowan University, will bring together, journalism and media educators/researchers:

- to share their best teaching practices,
- increase international research and teaching collaborations,
- attempt to meet the media industry's demands.

The Congress offers a range of panels, syndicates, paper presentations, workshops and students projects, together with pre-conference meetings and training sessions.

The Congress is held every three years with the first in Singapore in 2007, followed by Grahamstown (2010), Mechelen (2013), Auckland (2016), Paris (2019) and online in 2022.

There are now direct flights to Perth from London, Rome, Johannesburg, Tokyo, Singapore, Manila, Auckland, Hong Kong, Dubai and Qatar.
