

European Journalism Training Association Teachers' Training

Meeting in Rome on Environmental Journalism

When and Where

21 - 23 May 2025

*Department of Communication and Social Research of Sapienza University of Rome
Via Salaria 113, in the center of Rome*

DIPARTIMENTO
DI COMUNICAZIONE
E RICERCA SOCIALE

SAPIENZA
UNIVERSITÀ DI ROMA

How to teach Environmental Journalism

A SIGNIFICANT, STIMULATING AND VALUABLE SUBJECT OF STUDY, BETWEEN THE INDIVIDUAL AND COLLECTIVE DIMENSIONS, BETWEEN LOCAL, REGIONAL AND GLOBAL LEVELS

Environmental journalism practice (according to ijnet)

- Covering the climate crisis
- Environmental justice reporting
- Covering major climate events
- Local perspectives
- Covering environmental crime
- Managing risk in environmental reporting

Methods, practices, experiences to teach environmental journalism

We invite you for Active Participation!

Deadline : March 10, 2025

Call for Papers

Proposals from teachers and professionals to approach environmental journalism teaching

Presentations

Clues from scientific research on environmental journalism

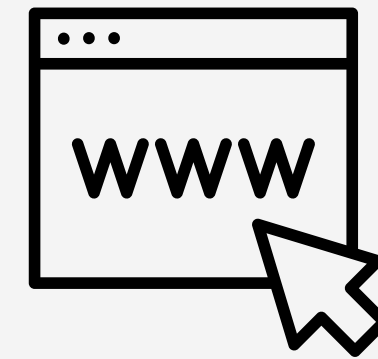

Workshops

Acknowledgement of impacts on public opinion

Best practices

Promotion of a context for debate and discussion on the 'right ways' of approaching environmental journalism

We are working on a website where...

All the information about the conference regarding times, places and accommodation

Detailed information on the call and the importance of the topic

The Teachers' Training schedule

Erasmus travel

If you'll use Erasmus programmes, please contact our International Office

Erasmus Mobility Academic Coordinator
Faculty of Political Science, Sociology,
Communication - Communication Area
Prof. Giovanna Gianturco

giovanna.gianturco@uniroma1.it

A chance to visit Rome and its immortal beauty!

A series of social activities are planned to uncover some hidden sides of Italy's capital city in addition to the most famous

The Colosseum and the Ancient Rome

Villa Albani Torlonia

Galleria Borghese and all the worderfoul green spaces

For further information

CoRiS Department

christian.ruggiero@uniroma1.it

EJTA

nadia.vissers@ap.be & anne.leppajarvi@haaga-helia.fi