EJTA 35 YEARS JUBILEE AGM IN UTRECHT. REGISTRATION IS OPEN UNTIL 16 SEPTEMBER!

The deadline to participate in EJTA's upcoming event in Utrecht is approaching soon: 16 September 2025.

Make sure you don't miss our 35 years' jubilee and send this invitation to your colleagues, so you and them can:

- join the discussions during the pre-meetings on Wednesday 15/10
- share the information of the AGM and celebrate with us on Thursday 16/10
- step into the intriguing programme of the Journalism Forum 'Journalism Education Reconnected' on Friday 17/10
- get the most of the cultural programme and the networking opportunities with current and 'old' EJTA members.

Something new we provide on Wednesday 15/10, upon general request, is a networking moment 'EJTA Connect' during which you can bring forward and discuss project proposals or look for international partners. If you're interested to present something: please contact the organising committee: ejta2025agm@hu.nl.

You find the programme and registration form on: <https://svjmedia.nl/ejta2025agm/>.

EJTA won't be able to celebrate the past, the current and the future without input from you, our enthusiastic members. So please send your jubilee photos and recipes to the AGM-organisation (details on the website).

We hope to welcome you all in Utrecht!

PRE-MEETINGS IN UTRECHT WEDNESDAY 15/10 AFTERNOON

13.30-15.00 Pre-meetings 1-3

TEACHING INCLUSIVE JOURNALISM (Reetta Nousiainen & Wouter Frateur)

In this workshop we will together develop and test possible assignments for students to work on more inclusive stories.

EUFACHECK (Frederik Marain & Alexander Maeder)

State of affairs for the academic year 2025-2026. Setting up a new publication season. Going through guidelines and discuss common practices.

TEACHING SPORTS JOURNALISM (Will Cope)

If you would like to be involved in an exciting and collaborative sports journalism project that will have tangible and cross border results this academic year, then please join the Sports Journalism Focus Group at the AGM in Utrecht next month. We aim to move quickly with our plans, which will have a collaborative impact for our universities, our students and the sports media landscape in 2026.

15.15-16.45 Pre-meetings 4-6

TEACHING AI & DATA JOURNALISM (Shannon Bakker & Frederik Marain)

Presentation and discussion of practical examples of AI-exercises and -assignments in Journalism classes. Feedback on and fine-tuning of the EJTA Recommendations for Integrating AI in Journalism Teaching. The document is now publicly available on the EJTA website: <https://ejta.eu/index.php/2025/06/26/ejta-publishes-recommendations-for-integrating-ai-in-journalism-teaching/>

RESEARCH IN AND ON JOURNALISM EDUCATION (Cristina Nistor & Tiko Tsomaia)

We aim to advance cross-border research in journalism education by exploring topics such as digital transformation, media literacy, misinformation, and beyond. Our goal is to foster stronger collaboration between universities, students and the wider journalism research community.

Please fill out this form to indicate your interest:

TEACHING CLIMATE JOURNALISM (Nadia Vissers)

What are the top priorities in journalism education when teaching our students to report about climate disruption? Starting from good and bad examples in the media and with input from the Teachers' Training in Rome (May 2025), we share experiences and pitfalls.

START OF NEW EJTA OFFICE MANAGER

On 1 September 2025 the EJTA Office moved from Belgium to Finland, from Thomas More Mechelen to Haaga-Helia Helsinki, from Krishna Coenen to Henna Turunen.

Henna will be working one day a week for EJTA, and that will be Thursday.

It would be great if you could respect this when you contact her on info@ejta.eu

Please give Henna a warm welcome in Utrecht in October.
